WAKAME

with Saleh Al Braik

The menu itself is a love letter back to the destination that Saleh Al Braik fell in love with: Japan.

After an 11-year hiatus, Saleh returned to Japan in his 30s, captivated by its vibrant culture and, especially, its culinary mastery.

Our menu is a tribute to this profound connection, blending Japanese elegance with Asian influences. Each dish reflects the essence and authenticity Saleh admired, with clean cuts and meticulous presentation showcasing the love the Japanese culture have for their dishes.

Join us as we bring the spirit of this captivating continent to your plate, inviting you to savor the flavors that stole Saleh's heart.
